

FN Art. 16

Administrative Liability

TITLE 02 — THE SOVEREIGN AND THE CROWN · CHAPTER 03 — INVIOABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

- 1 Acts undertaken in the administrative or proprietary capacity of the State may give rise to claims determined in accordance with law, without implicating the person or dignity of the Sovereign.
- 2 Such claims shall lie against the State, the competent organ, or the public treasury, in the manner provided by Code or by Sovereign Decree.
- 3 Remedies may include declaration, correction of records, restitution, or compensation, as provided by law.
- 4 No remedy under this Article shall include personal coercion of the Sovereign, arrest, or criminal sanction against the Sovereign.
- 5 The State may establish administrative procedures, tribunals, and limitation periods for the orderly resolution of claims.
