

FN Art. 19

Flags of Kaharagia

TITLE 03 — NATIONAL SYMBOLS · CHAPTER 01 — SYMBOLS OF STATE

- 1 The Standard of the Sovereign is the personal standard of the Sovereign and takes precedence over all other flags. It shall be flown only when the Sovereign is in residence or present at an official occasion, or as otherwise authorised by the Sovereign.
- 2 The National Flag is the primary flag of the State and represents Kaharagia as a whole. It may be flown, displayed, and reproduced by any person without licence or restriction, provided that such use is not misleading as to official authority. No flag of Kaharagia, other than the Standard of the Sovereign, shall take precedence over the National Flag.
- 3 The specifications, ratios, precedence, and protocol governing the flags of Kaharagia are established by Sovereign Decree.
- 4 No person shall present as an official flag of the State any flag that does not conform to the registered specification, except as authorised by the Sovereign.
