

FN Art. 26

Regency

TITLE 04 — THE ROYAL HOUSE · CHAPTER 02 — SUCCESSION AND REGENCY

- 1 Where the Sovereign is incapacitated or a minor, sovereign authority shall be exercised by a Regent in accordance with Royal House Law.
- 2 The Regent exercises authority in the name of the Sovereign and is bound to preserve the rights, dignity, and succession of the Crown.
- 3 The appointment, recognition, powers, and termination of a Regency are governed by Royal House Law; the act establishing a Regency shall be registered and, where appropriate, published.
- 4 Acts of the Regent performed within the Regency authority are acts of State.
- 5 Upon termination of the Regency, all authority reverts immediately to the Sovereign without further formality.
